

ington. Asked about the reports, he would say only that "I have had absolutely no contact whatsoever with the President-elect."

Mr. Kennedy held a press conference this morning on the sun-baked patio of his father's seaside villa to announce Mr. Weaver's appointment to head the Federal Government's top housing agency, one of the highest Federal posts ever held by a Negro.

It was at this news conference, held before the scheduled release of the Bundy appointment, that the President-elect slapped down objections voiced by retiring Democratic Gov. Foster Furcolo of Massachusetts.

He was asked his reaction to a press statement by Gov. Furcolo saying, "It is completely incredible that President-elect Kennedy would name a person so completely unqualified as McGeorge Bundy."

"I think the Governor's objection is that Mr. Bundy opposed him in the 1958 election of the Democratic party machinery. The subcommittee's study provides a useful starting point for the work that Mr. Bundy will undertake in helping me to strengthen and to simplify the operations of the National Security Council."

Job for Roosevelt's Son

The statutory members of the NSC are the President, Vice President, Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense and Director of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization. In the Eisenhower administration, Central Intelligence Agency Director Allen W. Dulles, who will continue in that post under Mr. Kennedy, and some other top officials have regularly attended NSC meetings.

Mr. Kennedy disclosed at his press conference that he has asked Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., son of the former President, to take a job in his administration. But he refused to say what it was. He did say it was not Assistant Secretary of the Navy, a post for which Mr. Roosevelt had been mentioned.

The President-elect said Mr. Roosevelt, who lunched and played golf with him yesterday and was his overnight guest wants to consider some business obligations and "we will talk about it (he) offer again in a week."

Mr. Kennedy put into the record his own answer to a question directed at Mr. Weaver to have recommended him highly to Mr. Kennedy for the State Department position.

Foster Is Nominated

There were reports yesterday that William Foster, 63-year-old corporation executive and a Republican, was Mr. Kennedy's choice as Undersecretary of State for Economic Affairs.

Mr. Foster is vice president of the Ohio Marine Corp-

He was Deputy Secretary of Defense from 1953 to 1957. The firm in which he is Robert C. Coe, Inc., has a Secretary of Defense, and is known to have recommended him highly to Mr. Kennedy for the State Department position.

Approved For Release 2000/04/13 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000200150222-7

25X1A

Approved For Release 2000/04/13 : CIA-RDP70-00058R000200150222-7